

TS-1034: What Are The Basic Memory Buffer Commands:

Comm One LLC - Technical Support Documentation

Support Documentation Index

Friday, March 19, 2010

2:23 AM

The information in this article applies to:

Omnitronix/Asentria or Western Telematic Buffer

ANSWER

The basic commands for polling a memory buffer manually are as follows:

Command	Control B Command	Verbose Command
Reset Partition	^B00	PRT
Send # of Records	^B20	RC
Release Records	^B01	RL
Erase Records	^B25	CLEAR
Buffer Setup	^B16	SETUP
Hang Up Connection	^B09	HANGUP

See Also:

TS-1033: What memory configurations do the buffers come in and how many records do each store?

TS-1034: What are the basic memory buffer commands:

TS-1011: How to do a manually download and processing using a Memory Buffer

Comm One Technical Support

12723 Whisper Creek Cove

Draper, UT 84020

801-523-9797

support@commone.com

Last Reviewed: 08/16/2010

TS-1034

TS-1034	Date: 06/11/2003 Keywords: Buffer Commands
---------	---